Gimme A High Hoof

Rachael Edwards slaps Rudolph's hoof Wednesday at the annual Breakfast with Rudolph event at Jefferson Carnegie Library. More than 200 students attended from Jefferson Primary School, kindergarten and Head Start along with students from private day care facilities.

A dozen JHS Culinary Arts students assisted in serving the meal. In addition to the meal provided by the library and the program, each student received a gift and a book.

JHS Students Advance to Texas Association of Future Educators State Competition

Eleven students from Jefferson High School competed in the Regional Texas Association of Future Educators State Competition (TAFE) in Mount Pleasant, Tex. on November 30. The following students advanced to state in at least one category (see picture to the right):

- Henry Hill - Project Visualize
- Ralyn Green - Project Visualize, Children's Literature, Lesson Plan and Delivery
- Jasmine Bryson- Elementary Bulletin board, Exploring Administrative Careers, Children's Literature
- Faith Collins - Project Visualization
- Samantha Lawson- Fundamentals of Educational Leadership, Project Visualization
- Jazmin Johnson- Impromptu Lesson Plan, Public Speaking
- Alisa Murchinson- Children's Literature
- Hannah Wales- Children's Literature
- Austin Farmer (not pictured) - Project Visualize, Impromptu Speaking, Fundamentals of Educational Leadership

"We are very proud of these outstanding students and what they have accomplished," said JHS TAFE sponsor Laura Ornelas. The advancing students will travel to Austin the last weekend of February for the state competition.
